

Dear guest,

You will find our guest data policy below.

Best regards from Sovino Brands

Which data

Booking data

Any way you make your booking at a Sovino Brands restaurant (online, by phone, personal attendance, e-mail, SoMe, text message, MMS), the mandatory booking data are registered in / transferred to the SevenRooms booking system (in the following just named the booking system).

SevenRooms is a data handler for the Sovino Brands restaurants.

Mandatory booking data:

- Name
- E-mail
- Phone number
- Booking history

Further booking data:

If you wish to submit further personal data for the restaurant to accommodate your visit, eg. dietary restrictions / health info / disability accommodation needs, please send an e-mail. Use the e-mail address listed on the restaurant's website.

Please avoid submitting such info in the booking system's "Reservation notes" box (see just below).

Reservation notes

Both you and the staff may add reservation notes to your booking to optimize your visit, eg. seating requests.

Please avoid submitting personal data in the booking system's "Reservation notes" box, since it will be stored 12 months after your latest visit at any Sovino Brands restaurant or until your profile is deleted. If you have submitted personal data in the "Reservation notes", please request for deletion. Read how under Right to be forgotten.

App data

If you use the Sovino Brands app, the following data are registered:

- Name
- E-mail

Right to be forgotten

If you want a data deletion; an early deletion (before the dates above under How long); or a minimization your data, the following applies:

Mandatory booking data in the booking system	E-mail a request to support@sovino.dk . We will delete the data, unless we have a need & legal authority or an obligation to store them for our normal period. If so, we will inform you.
Reservation notes in the booking system	E-mail a request to support@sovino.dk . We will then delete the data.
App data	Erase your app profile in the app's settings
Newsletter data	Use the 'Unsubscribe' function in bottom of the newsletter.
Cookie data	Erase cookies from your browser and/or set your browser to reject cookies.

Behavioral Tags/notes in the booking system

Such can be stored without consent.
Inquiries or complaints hereof may be sent to support@sovino.dk. We will then evaluate our need & the legal authority to store the tags, and then inform you.

Any data communicated and/or purposefully used outside the booking system

E-mail a request to support@sovino.dk.
We will delete the data, unless we have a
need & legal authority or an obligation to store them for our normal period. If so, we will inform you.

Normal
contact info

E-mail a request to support@sovino.dk.
We will delete the data, unless we have a
need & legal authority or an obligation to store them for our normal period. If so, we will inform you.

Video surveillance

Due to technical challenges of omitting specific guests from recordings, a wish to be forgotten before the automatic deletion does not exceed our legitimate interests etc. in the opposite. Hence, early deletion will not occur.

Requests regarding incidents during your visit may be filed to support@sovino.dk, stating place, time and other info relevant to identify the incident. We will then investigate and to a relevant and possible extend secure the recordings. As a main rule, recordings will only be disclosed to the police and only upon their request.

Downloaded
video footage

If you wish to know if you occur in specific video footage downloaded and stored beyond our automatic date of deletion, an inquiry can be filed to support@sovino.dk, stating place, time and other info relevant to identify the incident. We will then investigate. If we have a need & legal authority or an obligation to further store the footage, we will inform you about it. Otherwise, we will delete it.

Want to know more
